

Tenure Track Faculty Position in Marketing and or Entrepreneurship

The Robert G. Merrick School of Business at the University of Baltimore invites applications for a full-time, tenure track position in marketing, with a focus on marketing and/or entrepreneurship. Preference will be given to candidates applying at the level of “Assistant Professor” although applications are welcomed at all levels. The position is available beginning fall 2010 and is subject to final budget approval by the President of the University.

The Merrick School of Business is accredited by AACSB International, enrolls approximately 2,000 students, and has programs at both the undergraduate and graduate levels. The University of Baltimore is part of the University System of Maryland and has three academic units: The Law School, The Yale Gordon School of Liberal Arts, and the Merrick School of Business. The University is located in the cultural center of Baltimore within walking distance of the harbor, restaurants, theaters and symphony hall. QUALIFICATIONS:

Successful candidates will have a Ph.D. in marketing and/or entrepreneurship from a regionally accredited institution. Applicants with degrees from AACSB accredited universities are preferred. ABDs will be given consideration if close to completion. Applicants must have excellent communication skills and relevant teaching experience. Experienced applicants are expected to display a strong research record; recent Ph.D.s and ABDs must demonstrate potential for research productivity. Full-time Merrick School of Business faculty members teach at both the undergraduate and the MBA level.

SALARY:

Salary is competitive and commensurate with experience.

APPLICATION:

Application deadline is October 1, 2009 or until filled. Applicants should submit a letter of interest including a statement of teaching and research philosophy, a curriculum vitae and any additional supporting materials. Three letters of recommendation highlighting teaching ability and experience should be sent directly to:
